previously rated 10.95, no towers below terrifying will be accepted onto the main list

Gameplay types:

Precision: Gameplay heavily based on aligning your player in the right places to make jumps doable

Purism: Gameplay only using platforms, no other collidable kit objects

COs: Gameplay heavily based on less common kit objects, like moving platforms and bouncepads for example

Jank: Gameplay based on weird/specific player movements, e.g. double jumping

Endurance: Towers with easier gameplay that lasts for a lot longer than average

Difficulty spikes: Gameplay that increases in difficulty a lot in certain parts/jumps

Memory: Gameplay that requires a lot of memorization to pass

RNG: Gameplay that requires luck to pass

Top Jumps: Gameplay based on jumps with a difficulty near or higher than 6.00

Wallhops: Gameplay based on the wallhop CO

Wallhop Spam: Gameplay based on high-cps (clicks per second) sections with the wallhop CO

Glitches: Gameplay based on glitches in the kit (e.g. velocity clipping, beatblock clipping)

		Walljumps: Gameplay based on the walljumping mechanic
		Bossfight: Towers with a bossfight inside of them
		Some more specific gameplay types are not listed here

Quality ratings below (All of these are completely subjective and just the opinion of bdk)

S	Extremely fun, among the best towers of these difficulties ever made
A+	Amazing gameplay, really good but there might be some small issues compared to the rating above
A-	Good gameplay, nothing extremely special but enjoyable to play
B	Alright gameplay, not terrible but not the most fun thing ever
C	Mid gameplay, also not terrible but I wouldnt find it fun to play
D	Bad gameplay, would not be enjoyable in the slightest to grind unless im way above the skill for it
F	Unplayable

Gameplay types:

Precision: Gameplay heavily based on aligning your player in the right places to make jumps doable

Purism: Gameplay only using platforms, no other collidable kit objects

Nil/Eternal	COs: Gameplay heavily based on less common kit objects, like moving platforms and bouncepads for example
Nil	Jank: Gameplay based on weird/specific player movements, e.g. double jumping
Unreal/Nil	Endurance: Towers with easier gameplay that lasts for a lot longer than average
Unreal	Difficulty spikes: Gameplay that increases in difficulty a lot in certain parts/jumps
Horri/Unreal	Memory: Gameplay that requires a lot of memorization to pass
Horrific	RNG: Gameplay that requires luck to pass
Cata/Horri	Top Jumps: Gameplay based on jumps with a difficulty near or higher than 6.00
Catastrophic
Terrifying	Wallhops: Gameplay based on the wallhop CO
Extreme/Terri	Wallhop Spam: Gameplay based on high-cps (clicks per second) sections with the wallhop CO
Extreme	Glitches: Gameplay based on glitches in the kit (e.g. velocity clipping, beatblock clipping)
	Walljumps: Gameplay based on the walljumping mechanic
	Bossfight: Towers with a bossfight inside of them
	Some more specific gameplay types are not listed here

ETERNAL+ TOWERS

Please note that at this point of difficulty rating, it gets very inconsistent due to lack of reliable opinion

reference

Gameplay types:
Precision: Gameplay heavily based on aligning your player in the right places to make jumps doable
Purism: Gameplay only using platforms, no other collidable kit objects
COs: Gameplay heavily based on less common kit objects, like moving platforms and bouncepads for example
Jank: Gameplay based on weird/specific player movements, e.g. double jumping
Endurance: Towers with easier gameplay that lasts for a lot longer than average
Difficulty spikes: Gameplay that increases in difficulty a lot in certain parts/jumps
Memory: Gameplay that requires a lot of memorization to pass
RNG: Gameplay that requires luck to pass
Top Jumps: Gameplay based on jumps with a difficulty near or higher than 6.00

Wallhops: Gameplay based on the wallhop CO
Wallhop Spam: Gameplay based on high-cps (clicks per second) sections with the wallhop CO
Glitches: Gameplay based on glitches in the kit (e.g. velocity clipping, beatblock clipping)
Walljumps: Gameplay based on the walljumping mechanic

Quality ratings below (All of these are completely subjective and just the opinion of bdk)

S	Extremely fun, among the best towers of these difficulties ever made
A+	Amazing gameplay, really good but there might be some small issues compared to the rating above
A-	Good gameplay, nothing extremely special but enjoyable to play
B	Alright gameplay, not terrible but not the most fun thing ever
C	Mid gameplay, also not terrible but I wouldnt find it fun to play
D	Bad gameplay, would not be enjoyable in the slightest to grind unless im way above the skill for it
